

3. Using the internet responsibly, look up the filmmaker and the primary journalist from the film. Use the information found to complete the following chart:

	What important information (other work, activities, experience) can you find about this person.	Source of this information
Who is the filmmaker?
What is her likely bias regarding the topic of this film (explain both the bias and your reasons for believing this)
Who is the principle journalist?
What is his likely bias regarding the topic of this film (explain both the bias and your reasons for believing this)		